Photographs in the newspaper

If a child is photographed by a newspaper the photo becomes the property of the newspaper and the newspaper has the final say on how it is used. Generally newspaper photos of groups of 12+ children do not have the names of the children attached. However, photos of less than 12 children are likely to include the full name of the child in the accompanying caption. Please be aware that when you give consent that this is the position. You will be notified if your child's image is to be used in a newspaper.
