Mrs. Brown's bit...

2020...New beginnings full of possibilities and potential!

Happy New Year to you all. I do hope you all managed to spend time with family and friends over the festive period. The saying 'time flies when you are having fun' is certainly true and we all arrived back in school on Monday morning ready for the new term, and the possibilities that lie ahead for us all.

School has been a busy place over the Christmas break. Mr Geraghty has been working tirelessly to make improvements to our environment, Mrs Hoy started the task of sifting through the library and the foyer is looking much more welcoming. The newsletter has changed format, it's still a work in progress but hopefully it will make for informative reading!

As a staff we are looking forward to the possibilities and potential that 2020 will bring us. We thrive on our relationships with our families and the wider community and I hope we will continue to work well together in pursuit of the very best education for your children.

Here's to 2020 and the weekend! Have fun and see you all on Monday at 8:45am!

This Week's Eynesbury's Eight!

- We all returned to school refreshed and ready to start the new term! The children all looked super smart and school ready – keep it up!
- Our learning got off to a great start! More of the same please!
- School went live on Twitter – we need you to follow us! @EynesburyCofE1
- We introduced changes to our rewards system! They're fab changes!
- Mrs Brown read our Collective Worship values linked novel to the whole school...Charlie and the Chocolate factory – a classic tale of honesty, love, forgiveness and respect. (It's a great read too!)
- The whole school visited the Panto...oh no they didn't! Oh yes they did!
- We welcomed Mr Partridge, Mr Puckey, Mr Hunt and Mr Goddard from PSS to school, our new PE coaches who will help us deliver high quality PE improving our physical and mental wellbeing.
- The entrance to school is finally taking shape with the addition of our mosaic cross created by the children. It's worth a visit!
