Koinonia – Community...our Eynesbury Community

Koinonia is a Greek New Testament word with a rich variety of meanings, one of which is community, the coming together as a family. Our Eynesbury School community is strong and developing even further and is at the heart of the community.

The sense of community is felt by everyone and I hope that by developing our links with you as parents we can build on the support and trust you have in us to provide the very best for your children. We ask that you get involved in our school and all that it offers, celebrate the good times with us and help us make this school the very best that it can possibly be.

We welcomed Father Paul to the Eynesbury School community this week. He came to our Collective Worship on Thursday and then toured our school. I know he is very much looking forward to being part of the Eynesbury School family and the wider community.

Here's to the weekend! Have fun, be kind to each other and see you all on Monday at 8:45am!

This Week's Eynesbury's Eight!

- Our Young Voices choir returned triumphant from Birmingham. They were superb representatives of our school. We tweeted it out to you all! Well done YV 2020, we are proud of you all!
- I had magical mathematicians, superb scientists and amazing artists sent to visit me and share their work with me #ProudHeadteacher
- We talked about the power of reading and how we could improve our vocabulary and learn 1,800,000 words in a year by reading for just 20 minutes each day #ReadingMakesYouBrainy Please ask the children about it and encourage them to read!
- We welcomed Mr Duncan, our Primary Advisor, we set aspirational targets and looked at 'even better ifs'!
- We got to a crucial part in Charlie and the Chocolate factory...Chapter 5 The Golden Tickets!
- We welcomed 14 teachers and the inventor of NumberBlocks to watch maths in action! Year 3 were amazing!
- Father Paul was installed as the new Vicar of St Neots and Eynesbury! Welcome to our Eynesbury family!
- We had our Collective Worship in the church on Thursday. Mrs Tabone led it and Father Paul was there to meet and greet us all.
